Grateful for Grandparents

Our Lady of Hope celebrated Grandparents' Day carnival style! We transformed our parking lot into a mini-carnival, complete with a bouncy house and games. Sheri the Clown provided the laughs while Roy the Magician mesmerized guests with his signature illusions. The best part? Making memories with the people we love most!

Giant Jenga!

Magic by Roy drew a large crowd of residents and guests alike.

Artists in Residence

When it comes to talent, our residents have it in spades! To celebrate their work, Our Lady of Hope hosted an art show featuring works from over a dozen residents. A mix of art—from tie-dye and paintings to quilts and collages—showed an impressive range of creativity and skill!

On a separate occasion, the work of resident Margo Whiteside was presented featuring pottery, photography, and poetry. Margo shared a lifetime of inspirational pieces with us, and she continues to follow her passion at Our Lady of Hope by taking photos at special events and wherever she finds inspiration.

If Paws Could Talk

There is no greater feeling than cozying up to a soft, warm puppy! Residents are all smiles at our monthly dog show presented by our friends at Therapy Associates. Our visiting “fur friends” perform a variety of jumps and tricks to wow the crowd. The best part? Spending happy one-on-one time with each puppy performer.

An Apple a Day

Carter Mountain Orchard in Charlottesville was such a popular destination for our residents this fall, we went more than once! We experienced all the flavors of fall, including crisp apples, hot cider, and fresh donuts. We also spent time perusing the many gifts and food items available in the Country Store.
