Let's Luau

Floral shirts and hula skirts! Residents wore their favorite tropical attire at our Summer Luau Social.

An ocean backdrop and colorful leis gave laid-back island vibes.

Guests enjoyed mocktails, conversation, and Joe

Scott playing our favorite beach tunes on steel guitar. Even our cups were topped off with tiny, tropical umbrellas (the real secret to a good drink!).

Residents showed their passion for fashion as they took center stage. “Grand’s Glamour Shots” provided the opportunity to dress in fancy cloaks, pearls, and crowns—the works! Talented Life Enrichment Associate Sam Moody took photos of our stunning models, who could then order prints. All proceeds benefited the residents of Darby House Senior Apartments, which suffered a fire earlier this year.

And most recently, a live Fashion Show had residents (and well-matched staff members) walking the red carpet, showing off their looks, and posing for their adoring crowd.

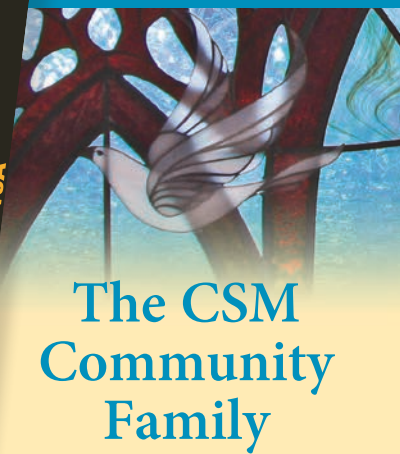

A stylish Phyllis Barker chats with “angels” Julie Jones and Judy Ressler. Below, Alice Whitson poses with Director of Life Enrichment Katie Carter.

It’s been a very fashionable summer in the halls of Our Lady of Hope. Residents got creative with colorful swimsuit designs inspired by our Luau and created using a variety of craft materials and posterboard. Each unique suit was then “modelled” by our Life Enrichment Team.

A Leaf of Faith

Who's got a green thumb?
We do! We do!

Working with plants has many health benefits that are linked to reducing stress, improving mood, and building a sense of purpose. Our Plant Adoption Event was created to give residents the opportunity to choose a window-sill-sitter of their very own. A certificate was provided for each plant including their adoption date and new name. We sure hope Sally and Fern find a new and wonderful life with their new owners.

Thank you, Mary Morrissey, Barry Tudor, and our local Trader Joe's, for making this event possible.
